“ Joel, since you came into my life over 10 1/2 years ago, we have had a special bond! You and I have had some fun adventures together and for that I'm thankful! You were funny and always made me laugh! There were even times you annoyed the hell out of me, but no matter what - we were always there for each other!! There are too many memories to post here, but one of the sweetest memories- was when you picked me up for my birthday dinner with a handful of flowers that you had picked from your yard!! You were such a thoughtful guy and you knew that I would love them!! I still have pictures of them because they were That Special! Just like you!! Friday when I last saw you - All you wanted was a Patio Day with me and I promised you one as soon as you were able!! I didn't expect you to stand me up for that- But I'm Still going to have that Day soon in your Memory! So when it's my time - you better have a table and a margarita in hand when I step through those Pearly Gates because you owe me one!! Thanks for being in my life and being the best Guy Friend I will ever have!!! You will be in my heart and with me always!! Love you so much my friend and will see you again someday!!
