

Lynn Wilson Leppert

December 20, 1955 - July 20, 2018

Barbara Lynn Wilson Leppert of Germantown, TN went to be with the Lord on Friday, July 20th, 2018. She was 62.

Lynn, a Memphis native, was born to Rollin and Margaret Wilson. She attended and graduated from East High School, after which she graduated from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. During her college summers, she would often spend time at the Young Life camps hosted by her father, Rollin, in Colorado, and it was at these camps where she met many lifelong friends, as well as her husband, Mike.

Lynn found true happiness in her family, and she loved more than anything being a wife, mother, and “Honey Bee” to her grandchildren. She was married to her husband and best friend, Mike, for over 39 years. They were married July 1, 1978 at Second Presbyterian Church of Memphis, and raised three children in a loving, Christian household, and she instilled in them her strength, loyalty, humility, and servitude.

Without question, Lynn’s greatest joys came from her children. She was incredibly supportive of everything they put their minds and hearts into, and always encouraged them to pursue their passions in life. While she never looked for any recognition, she attended almost every one of her kids’ games during their high school and collegiate careers, traveling all over the country and driving hundreds of miles each weekend to be there for them. Lynn also loved playing with and spoiling her four grandchildren, and was happiest just watching them run around and play with each other. She loved trips with her family to the beach, Colorado, the Cayman Islands, and spending time with her friends over lunch.

She was best known for her loyal friendship, quiet strength, and for living her life every day with love and conviction. She brought joy to everyone she met, and her smile could brighten anyone’s day. Lynn was remarkably generous in the most subtle ways, and was never hesitant to lend a helping hand or volunteer her time. Although calm and collected, she was without a doubt the bond that kept her family together, and the fighting spirit that persevered through many adversities. Those who knew them well would certainly agree that while her husband Mike was the outgoing and spirited one of the pair, it was Lynn that was the rock of the family; the one who everyone could lean on. She lived her life with love, passion, and integrity, and was a beautiful example to all of how one should live.

Lynn was preceded in death by her husband, Mike; her parents, Rollin and Margaret; and her sister, Libby; and is survived by her children Blair White, John Michael Leppert, and Leah Allers; her grandchildren Ava and Greyson White, and Lincoln and Beckett Allers; and her sister Lee Strickland.

A visitation will be held to celebrate the life of Lynn Leppert on Sunday, July 29th, 2018 at Germantown Presbyterian Church, at 1:00 p.m. A memorial service will follow at 3:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the charity of your choosing, in honor of Lynn.

“ Lynn was a 2nd Presbyterian and an East friend. I have many fond memories of her. She was always a sweet person who offered help to her friends. My prayers are with her children and family. Cindy Walker Brown

“ My sympathies with Blair, John Michael, and Leah. Mike and Lynn were two of the finer human beings in my life. Wonderful people. I'm sad for me that they are not with us now. Will always remember them and my life is far better having known them. Was always joyful to be in their company. The obituary summarizes Lynn's life and essence perfectly. She was the best.

“ I was Lynn's roommate for 2 years at U.T. We had so much fun together and I remember so well when she and Lep started dating. We served in each other's weddings. My husband, Ted, went to medical school with Mike. My sister, Laura, knew Mike and Lynn, and my brother-in-law worked in the anesthesia group with Lep. Because I am in Charleston, S.C. with my son & his family, I am not able to attend the funeral. I know Lynn & Lep are happily reunited in heaven. How I pray for all of you that you will have God's peace and comfort in the days ahead. We know the Lord does not make mistakes. I know that He will provide those friends to come along side you to guide you in Life's journey. I know this because He has provided it for me. God Bless and Keep You.... With much love and many prayers, Ted Brandon and Lee Ann Lendermon Brandon
